

A Taste of Tradition

For generations, Symeon's has been more than a restaurant. It's been a gathering place where families celebrate milestones, friends reconnect, and visitors experience the flavors and hospitality that have made this community special.

This Restaurant Week, we're proud to honor the legacy of Symeon Senior by featuring one of his favorite menu items, our signature Souvlaki, a dish that reflects the quality, tradition, and care he believed every guest deserved.

Symeon understood that great food brings people together. Whether welcoming longtime friends, first-time visitors, or family gathered around the table, he believed a meal should be shared, savored, and remembered. His commitment to authentic recipes, generous hospitality, and treating every guest like family helped build the foundation that continues to define Symeon's today.

As you enjoy this Restaurant Week special, we invite you to celebrate the people, traditions, and memories that have made Symeon's a local favorite for generations.

Thank you for being part of our story.
